SYRIAN WINE

BARGYLUS[®]
GRAND VIN DE SYRIE

The Domaine Bargylus winery is located on the slopes of the Bargylus mountain range in Latakia, along the Mediterranean Sea. As far back as 3,000 years ago, wine was produced in this region. The vineyards benefit from a soil that is rich in chalk and clay, and their altitude provides a perfect balance between daytime and nighttime temperatures. The wines are further enhanced by the influence of the western sea breezes, which give them a wonderful minerality and character.

Bargylus Blanc - 2012 Bargylus

0,75 L 68,00 €
0,1 L 9,90 €

The Bargylus Blanc is a blend of 55 % Chardonnay and 45% Sauvignon Blanc and matures for twelve months in wooden barrels made of French oak. It is characterised by its bright yellow hue with a hint of green. It has the fragrance of limes and fresh mint and is refreshing, full-bodied and fruity with a pleasant acidity and a long, elegant finish.

Bargylus Rouge - 2009 Bargylus

0,75 L 89,00 €
0,1 L 12,00 €

With a composition of 50% Syrah, 25% Cabernet Sauvignon and 25% Merlot the Bargylus Rouge matures for 14 months in French oak barrels, giving rise to a complex red wine with a dark claret colour and purple reflections. Its aroma is that of black fruits and peonies and is full-bodied, tasty and structured with gentle tannins and a long-lasting, spicy finish.
